Following their sell-out performance in March 2008, the London Symphony Chorus, City of London Sinfonia and top soloists return to the Barbican to celebrate Easter with another performance of this seminal work. St Matthew's dramatic description of the events leading to Christ's crucifixion is brought to life in Bach's music, conducted by the LSC's Chorus Director, Joseph Cullen.

Join us for this performance of Bach's St Matthew Passion – the greatest work of the kind ever composed, a milestone in western civilisation.
